Unlock International Opportunities

With PMP®, you're not just limited to national roles. It opens doors to working with UN agencies, ADB, World Bank, Islamic Development Bank, and other global organizations.

About US:

Project Management Initiatives Center (PMIC). The Project Management Initiatives Center (PMIC), launched by Lazuli Pamir Consulting Engineering Services Co., is a ground breaking initiative designed to enhance the professional capacities of individuals and organizations across Afghanistan. PMIC is focused on providing high-quality training in program management, project management, proposal writing, health and safety (HSE), contract management, and other essential skills, empowering professionals to excel in today's dynamic project environments.

Through PMIC, we aim to contribute to the sustainable development and growth of Afghanistan's workforce by offering globally recognized certifications and training programs. As an Authorized Training Partner (ATP) of both the Project Management Institute (PMI®) and PM4NGOs, we deliver world-class certifications such as PMP®, PgMP®, Program DPro®, and Project DPro®, tailored to the unique needs of Afghanistan's development and humanitarian sectors.

PMP® can change your life and advance your career!
